Corry and Hill make their own History ANALYSIS

BY ALAN JONES

Three weeks after topping the Commercial Pop club chart, where it was his eighth and her ninth No.1, History jumps 19-1 to top the Upfront club chart for Joel Corry x Becky Hill.

The pair have been less successful on the Upfront chart – Corry only a little less so, with History becoming his eighth No.1 so far – but it is only the fourth for Hill, who last occupied the Upfront No.1 four years ago, with MK and Jonas Blue collaboration Back & Forth.

A year to the week since he made a triumphant return to the top of the Commercial Pop club chart with Dua Lipa mash-up Cold Heart, engineered by Pnau, Elton John is back at the summit with the similarly conceived and executed Hold Me Closer, this time accompanied by Britney Spears. Utilising elements from Tiny Dancer in the main, along with tracks like Don't Go Breaking My Heart, it was created by producers Andrew Watt and Cirkut.

For Spears, whose vocals are entirely new, Hold

JOEL CORRY, BECKY HILL

Me Closer is the first Commercial Pop No.1 since 2013, when Work Bitch topped the list, though she came close in 2015, when her Iggy Azalea collaboration Pretty Girls got to No.2.

Sunshine dims a little on the Black Music club chart, but the Tyga track, which also features vocals from Jhene Aiko, several lines from the late rapper Pop Smoke and a sample from Lil' Flip's track 2004 track, also called Sunshine, remains at No.1 for a second week. It enjoys only a slender 2% margin over Bad Girl, which tucks in at No.2 for Idahams x Ajebo Hustlers.
